Provided that, where in the opinion of the Committee the complaint does not disclose any prima facie case of professional misconduct, the Committee may, at any stage of the proceedings, dismiss such complaint without requiring the advocate to whom the complaint relates to answer any allegations made against him and without hearing the complaint.

(4) After hearing the complaint and the advocate to whom the same relates, if he wishes to be heard, and considering the evidence adduced, the Committee may order that the complaint be dismissed or, if of the opinion that a case of professional misconduct on the part of the advocate has been made out, the Committee may order—

Provided that where the advocate fails to comply with an order of the Committee under this subsection, the Committee may determine the fee payable to the advocate in such sums as it deems fit.

(7) If a bill of costs has been filed in Court by the advocate against whom a complaint is being heard but has not been taxed, the Committee may adjourn the complaint for such period as it considers reasonable to allow such taxation:

(9) In any case where the complainant has not filed a civil suit against the advocate in respect of the sum in dispute, the Committee may order the advocate to pay to the complainant such sum as it finds to be due from the advocate.

PART II—APPLICATION BY ADVOCATE FOR NAME TO BE REMOVED FROM ROLL

3. (1) An application to the Committee by an advocate under section 59 of the Act to procure his name to be removed from the Roll shall be made by way of affidavit in Form 1 set out in the Schedule.

(2) Such affidavit shall be sent to the secretary and a copy thereof to the Council.

4. (1) Unless within fifteen days after receipt of the affidavit, written notice of intention to oppose the same has been given to the secretary, the Committee may decide the application without requiring the attendance of the applicant.

(2) In any other case, the Committee shall fix a day for the hearing, and the secretary shall give written notice thereof to the applicant and to the Council not less than twenty-one days before the day fixed for the hearing.

(3) The Committee may, if it thinks fit, require the applicant to give notice of his application and of the day fixed for the hearing, by advertisement or otherwise as it may direct.

5. If any person other than the Council intends to object to the application at the hearing thereof, he shall give written notice of his intention to the applicant, the Council and the secretary at least seven days before the day fixed for the hearing, specifying the grounds of his objection; and if the Council intends to object to the application it shall cause a similar notice to be given to the applicant and to the secretary.

6. If, on the hearing of the application, the Committee is of the opinion that grounds exist for a complaint against the applicant under section 60 of the Act, the Committee may refuse the application or adjourn the same sine die pending the making and disposal of a complaint under that section, and may give all such directions with respect thereto as the Committee may deem expedient.

7. Part IV shall apply mutatis mutandis to the hearing of an application under this Part.

PART III—COMPLAINTS AGAINST ADVOCATES AND APPLICATIONS
CONCERNING ADVOCATES' CLERKS

8. A complaint to the Committee under section 60, or an application to the Committee under section 72, of the Act shall be made by way of affidavit in Form 2 or Form 3 in the Schedule, as the case requires:

Provided that, where a complaint or application is instigated by the Council, such complaint or application may be made on behalf of the Council by the secretary of the Society or by such other person as may be appointed by the Council.

9. An affidavit referring a complaint to the Committee under section 60 (2) of the Act shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred shillings.

10. The Council may, if of the opinion that the circumstances of a complainant or applicant or the nature of a complaint or application so warrant, appoint an advocate to represent the complainant or applicant; and the disbursements of such advocate, so far as not recoverable from the advocate or advocate's clerk in respect of whom the complaint or application is made, shall be paid out of the funds of the Society.

11. If a complaint made to the Committee is dismissed under the proviso to section 60 (3) of the Act, the Committee shall, if so required by the complainant or the advocate to whom the complaint relates, make a formal order dismissing the complaint.

12. In the case of an application in respect of an advocate's clerk, the clerk shall not be represented before the Committee by any advocate by whom he was employed at the time of the matters which form the subject matter of the application, or by any employee of such an employer.

13. In the case of a complaint against an advocate, and in the case of an application in respect of an advocate's clerk, the Committee shall fix a day for the hearing, and the secretary shall give notice thereof to each party to the proceedings not less than twenty-one days before the day fixed for the hearing, and shall at the same time furnish each party, other than the complainant or the applicant, with a copy of the affidavit of complaint or application and of any affidavit in support thereof.

- (b) shall set out, in general terms, the charge or charges of professional misconduct made against the advocate, or the grounds of the application in respect of an advocate's clerk, as the case may be:

Provided that the Committee shall not be precluded from taking into consideration, subject to rule 23, any other charge or ground which may become apparent at the hearing and which fairly arises from the matters set out in the complaint or application.

15. Any party may inspect and take copies of the documents included in the list furnished by any other party.

PART IV — MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

16. (Revoked by L.N. 59/2004).

17. If any party fails to appear at the hearing, the Committee may, in its discretion, upon proof of service on such party of the notice of hearing, proceed to hear and determine the complaint or application in his absence.

18. The Committee may, in its discretion either as to the whole case or as to any particular fact or facts, proceed and act upon evidence given by affidavit.

19. The Committee may, at any stage of any proceedings refer the case to the Council, which may cause a complaint or a further complaint to be lodged against an advocate or, in case of an application under Part II, may make representations to the committee.

20. No complaint or application made under Part II or Part III shall be withdrawn after it has been sent to the secretary, except with the leave of the Committee, which may be granted, or refused, upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as the Committee thinks fit.

21. The Committee may of its own motion, or upon the application of any party, adjourn the hearing upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit.

22. The Committee may, in its discretion and after giving the parties concerned an opportunity to be heard, order the consolidation of the hearing of any proceedings before it.

23. If, in the course of a hearing, it appears to the Committee that the charges of which notice has been given, or the grounds of an application under section 72 of the Act, require to be amended or added to, the Committee may make or permit such amendment or addition, and the filing of such further affidavit, as it thinks fit, or, if in the opinion of the Committee such amendment or addition is not within the scope of the complaint or application, may require the same to be embodied in a further complaint or application:

Provided that if such amendment or addition is, in the opinion of the Committee such as to take any party by surprise, or prejudice the conduct of his case, the Committee shall grant an adjournment of the hearing upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as the Committee thinks fit.

24. Upon the hearing or determination of any complaint or application, the Committee may, in the case of a complaint against an advocate, without finding any professional misconduct proved against the advocate, or, in the case of an application in respect of an advocate's clerk, without making any order under section 72 of the Act, nevertheless order any party to pay the costs of proceedings if, having regard to his conduct and to all the circumstances of the case, the Committee so thinks fit.

25. The Chairman of the Committee shall take or cause to be taken a note of all proceedings before the Committee, or may order that the record of any proceedings before it shall be taken by short hand note.

26. Any party to proceedings before the Committee shall be entitled to inspect the record or transcript thereof, and any party entitled to be heard in any appeal filed from any such proceedings shall be entitled to be supplied with a copy of a transcript of such proceedings against payment, if so ordered by the Committee, of copying charges at such rate, not exceeding two shillings per folio of one hundred words, as the Committee may from time to time direct.

27. Service of any notice or document may be effected under these Rules by any method authorized by law or by registered post, addressed to the last known postal address or abode in Kenya of the person to be served, and such service shall be deemed to have been effected seventy-two hours after posting.

28. The Committee may dispense with any requirements of these Rules respecting notices, affidavits, documents, service or time, in any case where it appears to the Committee to be just or expedient so to do.

29. The Committee may extend the time for doing anything under these Rules on such terms as to costs or otherwise as the Committee thinks fit.

30. (1) Any party may by notice in writing, at any time not later than nine days before the day fixed for the hearing, call upon any other party to admit any document and if such other party desires to challenge the authenticity of the document he shall within six days after service of such notice, give notice that he does not admit the document and requires it to be proved at the hearing.

(2) If such other party refuses or neglects to give notice of non-admission within the time prescribed in paragraph (1), he shall be deemed to have admitted the document unless the Committee otherwise directs.

[Subsidiary]

(3) Where a party gives notice of non-admission within the time prescribed by paragraph (1), and the document is proved at the hearing, the costs of proving the document shall be paid by the party who has challenged the document, whatever the order of the Committee may be, unless in its report or order the Committee finds that there were reasonable grounds for not admitting the authenticity of the document.

31. Where a party proves a document without having given notice to admit under rule 30 (1), the Committee may disallow the costs of proving the document.

32. A witness summons issued under section 60 (4) of the Act shall be in Form 5 in the Schedule.

- (b) if he does not split the cheque or draft, he shall pay the cheque or draft into a client account.

(2) Money which is not client’s money but which is paid into a client account, other than under rule 5 (b), shall be paid out as soon as reasonably possible.
